

Dixon Tourism Board

Tuesday, Nov. 14th, 2023

At 4:30 PM

Dixon Tourism Board met Tuesday, November 14th, 2023, 4:30 PM. Board members in attendance were Chairman Mandy Fambrough, Monica Duncan, and Lori Hayes. Nicole Peavy and Jonathon Peavy were absent. Paul Fryer and Jessi Gordon were visitors.

Mandy called the meeting to order.

Minutes were approved from the October 4, 10, and 18 meetings. Monica made the motion, seconded by Lori, all ayes.

No old business was discussed at this time.

New business discussed was the Tourism Board voted to take over the Christmas Decorating Contest for the City of Dixon, as it has been previously handled by the Commission. Residential prizes will be a 1st, 2nd and 3rd cash prize. We also discussed the addition of local businesses to the contest and give out trophies for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place. We will post via Facebook to let residents and businesses know that we will be looking for the best Christmas decorations.

Next meeting will be held on November 27th@ 1:00 PM at the Webster County Senior Center.

Lori made the motion to adjourn, Monica 2nd, all ayes.

Mandy Fambrough, Chairman

Dixon Tourism Board

Tuesday, Nov. 27th, 2023, 12 PM

Dixon Tourism Board met Tuesday, November 27th, 2023, 12PM. Board members in attendance were Chairman Mandy Fambrough, Nicole Peavy, Jonathan Peavy, and Lori Hayes. Monica Duncan was absent.

Mandy called the meeting to order.

Minutes were approved from Nov 14th. Lori made the motion, seconded by Nicole, all ayes.

Old business Mandy requested we table the review of the Veteran's Celebration until next scheduled meeting.

Christmas Decorating Contest: Mandy will work on getting donations for awards. Out-of-town judges will be contacted. Advertisement will be a posting to the Tourism Board's Facebook page. Residential prizes will be: 1st Place $100, 2nd place $75 and 3rd place $50. The business category will have one overall winner only, and will receive a framed certificate and doughnuts for all employees. Only residences and businesses within Dixon City Limits are eligible to win. Judging will occur the week of December 18-22 in the hours of 5-7PM. Lori made a motion, seconded by Nicole, all ayes.

New business was the Dixon Tourism voted to approve the payment for the Providence Home Center for supplies for Hero Banner Storage. Jon Peavy has asked to step down as a board member. He will continue to help in whatever we need with his assistance. We are going to appoint Kaitlyn Hargrove as the new secretary. She will be in attendance on our December meeting. Lori made a motion, seconded by Nicole, all ayes.

Next meeting will be held on Dec 18th@ 4 PM at the Webster County Senior Center. Starting in January the Dixon Tourism will meet the second Monday of every month at 4PM at the WC Senior Center.

Nicole made the motion to adjourn, Lori 2nd, all ayes.

Mandy Fambrough, Chairman